The School Song

Oh when the Wayne County Cardinals fall in line
We’re gonna win this game another time
And for the dear ol’ school we’ll yell and yell
For the Cardinals that we love so well, so well

We’re gonna fight fight fight for every score
We’re gonna win this game and win some more
We’re gonna roll those Warriors on the floor
Out the door – Rah, Rah, Rah

W-A-Y-N-E  Wayne County!!!

• All students are required to go to the lunchroom during your lunch period. Discipline is assigned for Lunch Skipping
• Treat all staff with respect and dignity
• Phone Calls – Not an excused tardy. Emergency Messages will be given to students when called in.

• Textbooks – Free to use, pay if lost/damaged (Dual Credit classes may require books that students enrolled are expected to purchase. That would be at student expense.)

• School Bank – Small Loans and Savings accounts offered. 4% interest compounded monthly for savings. Lunch loans are $2.00 with a flat interest rate of $.25 within 4 school days. Late fees charged on all past due loans. Larger loans up to $50.00 may also be obtained. See Cardinal Security Bank for details.

• Student Obligations – Students are obligated to pay full amount on any order made with a salesperson (Class rings, Keys, Jacket, etc.) who serves WCHS. Students also responsible for any or all lost, stolen, damaged textbooks or other supplies assigned.
Rules and Procedures (pgs. 25 – 26)

• Random Drug Testing – All students who participate in athletics or driving are subject to district drug testing. Others may be entered into the program voluntarily upon Parent Request. Return the Consent for Voluntary Random Drug Testing form if you don’t drive or participate in an extra-curricular activity and your parents want you to be subject to random drug testing.

• Unacceptable Objects – Toys and gadgets that do not fit into the curriculum should be left at home. The school assumes no responsibility to investigate loss or theft of such items. Confiscated items are not the responsibility of WCHS or its employees. You are encouraged not to bring large sums of money or value to school.

• Social events/extra-curricular activities – Proper conduct is expected at school-sponsored home and away events. Includes NO inappropriate signs, chants, gestures, etc. Face and body paint are permitted, but students must wear a shirt regardless. Discipline may be administered, including suspension from attending events.
• You are STRONGLY DISCOURAGED from bringing cell phones/media devices to school because of the potential loss of valuable property.

• WCHS has no responsibility to investigate and therefore may not investigate the loss or theft of personal media devices, as these should not be brought to school in the first place.

• Cell phones are to be turned off and OUT OF SIGHT during class time.

• Headphones, earphones, etc. are generally prohibited during class time.

• Use of device to take pictures/video is prohibited throughout the school day, as such could violate student privacy and/or rights and may result in disciplinary action.

• Simply put, NO Cell Phone usage during class times.
• Field trip/Misconduct on School Bus – informational for students

• Weapons and/or Dangerous Instruments (INCLUDING ORDINARY POCKET KNIVES) are simple – ZERO Tolerance – including on person, in personal belongings, in personal vehicles. Any confiscated items, including pocket knives, will not be returned until the conclusion of the school year. Law Enforcement will be notified for law violations.

• Prom privileges policy – Students with more than 10 behavioral events or more than 9 UA are not eligible to attend the Prom. Guests must be approved by WCHS Administration. Guests must also meet the behavior and attendance guidelines. Guests must be minimum Freshmen (or equivalent).

• Bullying policy – Students should read in its entirety
Bullying Tip Line

Not for imminent emergencies – tell an adult

  • Used for various interventions.
  • Students expected to get their tray and report directly to ISS

• ISS
  • Cell Phones are surrendered upon entry into ISS.

• Suspension/Expulsion
  • Not allowed to participate in school activities/sports when suspended or expelled. Student may not receive credit for assignments completed during suspension, but is encouraged to keep up with class.

• Alternative School
  • Used for various reasons, including discipline, behind credits, etc.
Tiered Consequences (pg. 29)

• Addresses “repeat offenders”

• Goal is to provide strategies and incentives for modifying student behavior.

• Note the interventions to be used if the behavior contract completed at level 2 is broken.
Disciplinary Consequences (pgs. 29-32)

- Discipline Matrix used to guide for students, parents, teachers, and administration on consequences to expect for a violation.
- Administrators will use best judgement in each case.
- Fighting and Assault
  - Anyone who knows or has reason to believe a fight/assault is going to happen should be proactive by telling a teacher or staff member. These events can often times be prevented.
  - School Resource Officer will be notified of all fights/assaults. The definition of Disorderly Conduct is engaging in fighting or in violent or threatening behavior or creating a hazardous or physically offensive condition by an act that serves no legitimate purpose. The definition of Assault is intentionally or wantonly causing physical injury to another person.
- Name-calling and being talked about does not constitute a reason to fight on behalf of self-defense.
- There is a difference in self-defense and being on the offensive.
Disciplinary Consequences (pgs. 29-32)

• Law Violations list beginning on page 31 (not to be considered all-inclusive)

• Incorrigible Behavior – defined as constantly displaying improper conduct after being corrected. Could be subject to “Beyond the Control of the School” charge with the CDW, long-term ISS or Alternative School placement, and/or referral to the WC BoE for expulsion.
